Editor's Note

It's that time of the academic year, where we have to take stock of how far we have come and what next to look forward. Life is all about exploring new avenues, which would tap the dormant potential in us to blossom. Summer vacation is the time you get to learn new skill, empower and refine oneself to discover the new “YOU”. Discover that one thing which you've always wanted to try but kept procrastinating. Put in Consistent, Directed, Self-Motivated, Intelligent Efforts to willingly go through the transformation that you are longing for.

Hold on to it relentlessly without giving up. Appreciate yourself for the smallest milestones that you achieve in this pursuit and look forward to achieving many more. Put yourself in a choiceless state to ensure seamless transition from a caterpillar to a beautiful butterfly that spreads its amazingly colourful wings, which is a sight to behold! A self-motivated individual can take pride in his growth from phase to phase. Spread your wings and explore the unexplored!!!
