EDITOR'S NOTE

SACRED SPACE

Service is one of the simplest yet most beautiful ways to bring meaning to life. It doesn't always have to be big; sometimes it's just a smile, helping a classmate, listening to a friend, or keeping our surroundings clean. What matters is the heart behind it. True service is not measured by the size of the act, but by the sincerity behind it.

.....Cont'd

When we say, “I will serve the society by...” it is more than a statement, it is a promise. Every small step, whether helping a friend, respecting elders, caring for nature, or sharing knowledge, builds a stronger and kinder community. Each act of kindness creates ripples of compassion, reminding us that in serving others, we enrich our own lives and make the world a better place.
